Dear Primary School

RE: Primary School Games: Medway Primary School Sports Hall Athletics Festival for years 3 and 4 (either an AM or PM session) - THURSDAY 28th JANUARY 2016

I am writing to invite your school to participate in the Medway Primary sports hall athletics Competition (yrs 3 and 4 either in the morning session 9.30am - 12.30pm approx. OR the afternoon session 1pm - 4pm).

The Primary Sports Hall Athletics Competition will be held at Medway Park on THURSDAY 28th January 2016 either from 9.30am - 12.30pm approx. for the AM session OR 1pm - 4pm approx. for the afternoon session. Entries and session selection (AM or PM) will be accepted on a 'first come first served basis'. Your school can enter 1 team in this age group maximum. Please note that the times may vary slightly depending on the amount of teams that enter.

The Festival will be aimed at pupils in years 3 and 4. Teams should consist of a minimum of 9 girls and 9 boys or a maximum of 15 boys and 15 girls in each age group team. There will be both track and field events going on at the same time and sport leaders and other adult organisers in the indoor sports hall, to help athletes.

Each School team will accumulate points from each team members 'times and distances' and these will be recorded and final positions will be given for each Primary School. The highest placed Howard School Sport Partnership school team and the highest placed Greenacre Sports Partnership school team will qualify for the Kent School Games finals in June 2016. Please find attached the event specification and the entry form.

If you would like to enter the Medway Primary School Sports Hall Athletics Competition (Years 3 and 4) please complete the enclosed entry form (selecting an AM or PM session) and return your completed entry form to:
